

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Whence sprang the woman to being?
Whither doth womanhood tend?
How shall her life to its impulsive agreeing,
Into the universe blend?

Philosophy straineth to learn it,
While history, scripture and art
Are heavily prest with the task to discern it.
The meaning of womanhood's part.

Not yet shall the brilliant wrangle
Of woman's inconsequent zeal
Resolve for the world the complicated
tangle,
In a verdict surpassing appeal.

And yet for all must the woman
The final adjudicator find
In the issue so weighty to interests human—
Her place in the realm of mankind.

Yet no! Let humanity ponder
Together its problems so vast,
And link with discretion and wisdom
and wonder
The present, the future and past.

Mary Hall Leonard.

WEDDINGS OF THE WEEK

Harris—Power.

The society event of the week in Charleston, W. Va., and one of decided interest to many Richmond friends, was the wedding of Miss Anna Power, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Power, to Mr. Walter Edward Harris, which occurred Tuesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock. The scene of the ceremony was at "Bellymore," the beautiful home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Walter Ashby, situated on the Southside hills, overlooking the city.

The interior of the house gorgeously decorated in white roses, chrysanthemums and cosmos presented a bower of beauty. The bride wore an exquisite gown of white crepe de chine lavishly trimmed in real lace, and was given away by her father. The wedding party entering the room to the strains of the wedding march rendered by Professor A. C. Herman's orchestra, which was concealed behind an embankment of palms. The bride's father, Mr. Walter Ashby, of the church of the Holy Trinity, performed the impressive ceremony of the Catholic Church, which was witnessed by only the immediate family.

Immediately after the ceremony an elaborate reception was given lasting from 3:30 till 5:30 o'clock P. M. The guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ashby, Mr. and Mrs. Howard, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. and Miss Emily Richardson assisted in entertaining the guests.

In the dining room a delicious collation was served by Mrs. Harry Pritchard, Mrs. W. B. Donnelly, Mrs. William Ohley, Mr. W. E. Chilton, and Mrs. Moses W. Donnelly. Miss Anna Power, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Power, was the bride. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Howard, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. and Miss Emily Richardson assisted in entertaining the guests.

Mr. Harris has been the Washington correspondent for a number of years for the Times-Dispatch, and is widely known in newspaper circles both in the United States and in Europe. The bride has also spent much of her life in Richmond, and is loved by a large circle of friends. The bride and groom were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Howard, of Pittsburgh; Mrs. and Miss Emily Richardson assisted in entertaining the guests.

Iredell—Edmond.

In the home of the bride, No. 304 West Grace Street, the wedding of Miss Roberta Edmond, daughter of the late Horace Edmond, and granddaughter of the late Rev. Dr. Woodbridge, former rector of Monument Church, to Captain Cadwallader Iredell, of this city, was celebrated yesterday, the Rev. Dr. W. E. Evans being the celebrant.

Only relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride wore a traveling gown, hat and gloves, and carried roses. After receiving congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Iredell left for a trip south. They are both extremely well-known in Richmond, where they enjoy the esteem of many friends and a prominent social position.

Announcement.

The engagement is announced of Miss Hildegard McKenna, youngest daughter of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court and Mrs. McKenna, to Mr. John Leggett Pultz, of New York, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pultz. This engagement, following so soon after the announcement of that of Miss Marie McKenna to Mr. Davenport Brown, of Boston, is of particular interest to society, in which the McKennas have taken so prominent a part. Miss Hildegard made her debut four years ago, at the family residence on Rhode Island Avenue, and has been an undisputed belle ever since. She is tall and graceful, says the Washington Post, with a superb figure, and the same beautifully fair and clear complexion for which her family is noted. She was educated in the private schools of Washington, and, in addition to the usual accomplishments of the up-to-date girl of society, is skilled in the plainer, but no less important, art of housekeeping.

Mr. Pultz, like Mr. Davenport Brown, is a Harvard man, of law and a consulting engineer, identified with large industrial interests in New York and in

HELEN'S SONG.

By PHILIP JAMES BAILEY.

This song is from the long poem of "Festus." Another selection from this author and his biographical sketch have already been printed in this series.

THE rose is weeping for her love,
The nightingale;
And he is flying fast above,
To her he will not fail.
Already golden eyes appear;
He wings his way along;
Ah! look, he comes to kiss her tears,
And soothe her with his song.

The moon in pearly light may steep
The still blue air;
The rose hath ceased to droop and weep.
For lo! her love is there;
He sings to her, and o'er the trees
She hears his sweet notes swim;
The world may weary; she but sees
Her love, and hears but him.

This series began in the Times-Dispatch Sunday, Oct. 11, 1905. One is published each day.
